

Curriculum Vitae

- Name: Julie Krakowski
- Nationality: French
- Date and place of birth: 09/05/81, Saint - Quentin (France)

Education:

School:

1998 - 1999: BAC speciality scientific (High school Henri-Martin) in Saint-Quentin, France

1999 - 2002: Degree in visual communication from ESAAT (Ecole Supérieure des Arts Appliqués Textile) in Roubaix, France

2005 - 2006: Masters in textile design in La Cambre ENSAV (Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts Visuels) in Brussel, Belgium

Workshop:

2002 - 2003: Fashion design in La Cambre ENSAV in Brussel, Belgium (two months)

2003 - 2004: Contact Dancing with Franck Beaubois (performer) in Brussel, Belgium (two weeks)

2003 - 2004: Textile and Architecture workshop (theme: house cover) in Grenoble, France (one week)

2005 - 2006: Textile and Architecture workshop (theme: partition/relation) in Brussel, Belgium (one week)

2005 - 2006: International European Object Observatory (theme: heritage city and mass tourism) workshop, presented by Martine Bedin in Venice, Italy (two weeks)

2006 - 2007: Contact Dancing with Patricia Kuypers (performeuse) in Brussel, Belgium (one week)

Work experience:

2000 - 2001: Graphic Designer, in a printing house in Saint-Quentin, France

2000 - 2001: Graphic Designer, in "Typ's Création" in Lille, France

2000 - 2001: Assistant to the textile restoration specialist in "Le Musée d'Art Moderne et d'Industrie" in Roubaix, France

2003 - 2004: work with Craig Wright, a textile designer specialised in leather in Brussel, Belgium

2004 - 2005: Elias scarf competition(first price)

2004 - 2005: Placement with Potencier, an industry specialized in embroidery for Lingerie, in Villers-Outreaux, France

2005 - 2006: Placement with Daniel Henri, a textile designer specialised in printing and knitting in Tournai, Belgique

2006 – 2007: Placement with Punto Seta, an industry specialized in jacquard, in printing and Embroiderie in Como, Italy

Exhibition:

Oct. 2004: "Modo Bruxellæ" - Hooy Kaye Museum in Brussel, Belgium

Jan. 2006: "Maison & Objet" Masters of Linen in Paris, France

Oct. 2006: "Modo Bruxellæ" - Espace Bizarre in Brussel, Belgium

Jan. 2007: "Heimtex" in Frankfurt, Germany